

Constantine The City of Bridges

Constantine is a spectacular city built on cliffs and connected by impressive bridges. Known for its dramatic views and rich history, it combines tradition and beauty. The deep gorges, cultural heritage, and unique atmosphere make Constantine one of Algeria's most iconic destinations.

Timgad The Roman Legacy

The Tuareg are known as the “Blue People” of the Sahara, famous for their traditions, resilience, and deep connection to the desert. Tuareg women hold an important role in society, symbolizing strength and culture. Their lifestyle reflects freedom, hospitality, and a rich ancestral heritage.

Oran - The Radiant City

Oran, known as “The Radiant,” is a vibrant coastal city on the Mediterranean. It blends history, culture, and modern life, with lively streets, beautiful architecture, and stunning sea views. From the Santa Cruz fortress to its famous music scene, Oran offers energy, charm, and unforgettable sunsets.

The Tuareg People Guardians of the Desert

The Tuareg are known as the “Blue People” of the Sahara, famous for their traditions, resilience, and deep connection to the desert. Tuareg women hold an important role in society, symbolizing strength and culture. Their lifestyle reflects freedom, hospitality, and a rich ancestral heritage.

www.kaditours.com

Djanet - A Jewel of the Sahara

Djanet is a hidden treasure in southern Algeria, at the edge of the UNESCO World Heritage site Tassili n'Ajjer. Famous for its surreal rock formations, ancient cave art, and golden dunes, it offers a unique journey into the heart of the desert. With its peaceful atmosphere and breathtaking landscapes, Djanet

